Petition to Modify Child Support Order

If you are filing this Petition in:

- the same case number as the current Child Support Order, the person who is listed as the Petitioner in the current order will stay Petitioner, even if they are not the person asking to modify the order now.
- a different case number or county from where the current Child Support Order was filed, the person asking to modify the order may be the Petitioner.

To modify a Child Support Order from a sealed Parentage case, contact the Superior Court Clerk's office about who to list as Petitioner and if there is a new case number.

1. My name is: _____. I ask the court to modify a Child Support Order. I am filing and serving proposed Child Support Schedule Worksheets at the same time as this Petition.

Important! Check your county's Local Court Rules for other forms and information that must be filed.

2. Correct County (Venue)

This is the correct county for this case to be heard because:

- the child/ren live/s in this county,

The Petitioner (name): _____ lives in (county): _____, (state): _____.

The Respondent (name): _____ lives in (county): _____, (state): _____.

3. Jurisdiction to Modify Order

The court has authority to modify the current Child Support Order because it was issued by a (check one):

- Washington state court.
- Different state or jurisdiction, but has been registered in a Washington state court and (check one):
  - All parties live in Washington now.
    - All the parties to the current order (other than a state party) now live in this state; and
    - The child/ren do/es not live in the state or jurisdiction where the order was issued.
  - No one left in issuing state.
    - The child/ren or parties to the current order (other than a state party) no longer live in the state or jurisdiction where the order was issued;
    - The person asking to modify the order (Petitioner) lives outside of Washington; and
    - Washington has personal jurisdiction over the Respondent because Respondent (check all that apply):
      - lives in this state now.
      - will be personally served in this state with a Summons and Petition for this case.
      - lived in this state with the child/ren.

      - did or said something that caused the child/ren to live in this state.
      - had sex in this state, which may have produced the child/ren.
      - signed an agreement to join this Petition or other document agreeing that the court can decide their rights in this case.
      - other (specify): _____

    - At least 1 child or party to the current order lives in Washington State now; and
    - Each party to the current order (other than a State party) has filed a consent with the court that issued the current order agreeing that a Washington court may modify the order and take continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

4. Is the State filing this Petition? (Check one):

- No. This Petition is filed by a parent, non-parent custodian, guardian or person owing support.
- Yes. The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) is filing this Petition because (check all that apply):
  - the child/ren receive/s public assistance.
  - the child/ren do/es not receive public assistance, but one of the parties asked DSHS to review the order and DSHS decided the order should be modified.
  - DSHS has received notice that the person owing support is currently in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least 6 months (or is serving a sentence of more than 6 months), and the order does not contain necessary abatement language.
  - another state or jurisdiction asked for this modification.

5. Current Child Support Order

The Child Support Order I want to modify was signed by the court on (date): _____ in (county): _____, (state): _____.
That order says (name): _____ must pay
(amount): $_____ each month for (child/ren's names): _____
_____.

Important! Attach or file a certified copy of the current child support order that you want to change if it was issued in a different county or state.

6. Should the court modify the monthly child support amount?

- No.
- Yes. I ask the court to order child support based on Washington State law. The monthly child support amount should be changed now because (check all that apply):
  - Agreement – The parties agree to the changes.
  - 1 year or more has passed – The current order was signed at least 1 year ago and (check all that apply):
    - the current order causes severe financial hardship for me or the child/ren.
    - I want to add a Periodic Adjustment provision according to RCW 26.09.100.
    - A child is still in high school and there is a need to extend support beyond the 18th birthday to complete high school.
  - 2 years or more have passed – The current order was signed at least 2 full years (24 months) ago and (check all that apply):
    - the parents' income has changed.
    - the economic table or standards in RCW 26.19 have changed.

(Note – You may be able to use a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521) instead of this Petition if 24 months have passed and the only reasons for your requests are that the parents' income has changed, or the economic table, or standards have changed.)

- Released from incarceration – The person who owes support has been released from incarceration, and support has been temporarily reduced (abated) and then reinstated.
- Default or past agreement – The current order was issued by default or agreement, without the court independently examining the evidence to decide a reasonable amount of support according to the law.
- Change of circumstances – There has been a substantial change in circumstances since the current order was signed. (Describe):

7. Should the court modify the order to add language allowing for temporary reduction due to incarceration? (Abatement)

- No.
- Yes. The current order does not provide for a temporary reduction (abatement) based on incarceration. The person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least 6 months (or serving a sentence of more than 6 months).

8. Is a temporary reduction due to incarceration needed now? (Abatement)

- No.
- Yes. (Check one):
  - DCS can administer the temporary reduction due to incarceration (abatement).
  - The court should temporarily reduce the total monthly child support amount to $10 while the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least 6 months (or serving a sentence of more than 6 months).

Important! The support will remain $10 a month through the third month after the person who owes support is released. Beginning the fourth month after the person who owes support is released, support will be 50% of the original amount, or $50 per child, whichever is more. One year after release, support will return to the full monthly child support amount (transfer payment) in the Child Support Order.

If this petition for modification is filed during the period of abatement, reinstatement of the support amount at 50% does not automatically apply. Send a copy of this petition to the Division of Child Support.

9. Should the court modify the end date for child support?

- No.
- Yes. The end date should be modified because (check all that apply):
  - Agreement – The parties agree to the changes.
  - Finish High School – The current order was signed at least one year ago. (Child's name): _____ will still be in high school when they turn 18 and will need support until they finish high school. I ask the court to order child support for this child to continue past their 18th birthday until the child finishes high school.
  - Dependent Adult Child – The current order says support must be paid for each child until the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last. Support should continue past this time for (child's name): _____ because this child will be unable to support themselves and will remain dependent past the age of 18. This child's situation has changed substantially since the current order was signed. (Describe):

Support for this child should continue until (check one):

- this child is able to support themselves and is no longer dependent on the parents.
- other: _____
- Default or Past Agreement – The current order was issued by default or agreement, without the court independently examining the evidence to decide a reasonable end date for support according to the law.

10. Should the court modify post-secondary educational support?

- No.
- Yes. Issue was reserved – The current order allows a parent or non-parent custodian to ask the court for post-secondary support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances. I ask the court to order the parents to pay post-secondary support, and to set a specific post-secondary support amount or percentage of expenses for (Child/ren's names): _____. The named child/ren depend/s on the parents for the reasonable necessities of life and will be ready to start a college or vocational program around (month/year): _____.
- Yes. Support was granted; need to set an amount – The current order says the parents must pay for the child/ren's post-secondary support, but did not set a payment amount or percentage. I ask the court to order a specific post-secondary support amount or percentage of expenses for (child/ren's names): _____ who will be ready to start a college or vocational program around (month/year): _____.
- Yes. Modify – I ask the court to (check all that apply):

- Require – The current order says post-secondary support is not required. I ask the court to change the order so that post-secondary support is required for (Child/ren’s names): _____
The named child/ren depend/s on the parents for the reasonable necessities of life and need support for college or vocational school.
- Cancel – The current order says the parents must pay for the child/ren’s post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. I ask the court to change the order so that post-secondary support is no longer required.
- Change Amount – The current order requires the parents to pay a specific amount or percentage of expenses for the child/ren’s post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. I ask the court to change the amount or percentage.

These changes should be made because (check all that apply):

- Agreement – The parties agree to the changes.
- Default or Past Agreement – The current order was issued by default or agreement, without the court independently examining the evidence to decide these issues.
- Change of Circumstances – There has been a substantial change in circumstances since the current order was signed. (Describe): _____

- No.
- Yes. I ask the court to order or change (check all that apply):
  - daycare expenses.
  - educational expenses.
  - long-distance transportation expenses.
  - other expenses.
  - tax issues. Order that parties have the right to claim the child/ren as their dependent/s for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on their tax forms in this way (specify): _____

Important! Although personal tax exemptions are currently suspended under federal law through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

These changes should be made because (check all that apply):

- Agreement – The parties agree to the changes.
- 2 years or more have passed – It has been at least 2 full years (24 months) since the order was signed and these requests are based only on changes in the parents’ income or the economic table or standards in RCW 26.19.

(Note – You may be able to use a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521) instead of this Petition if 24 months have passed and the only reasons for your requests are that the parents’ income has changed, or the economic table or standards have changed.)

- Default or Past Agreement – The current order was issued by default or agreement, without the court independently examining the evidence to decide these issues.
- Change of Circumstances – There has been a substantial change in circumstances since the current order was signed. (Describe):

12. Should the court modify health insurance orders?

- No.
- Yes. I ask the court to change the health insurance orders as follows:
  - Order one or both parents to provide or pay for health insurance coverage for the child/ren if it is available through an employer or union for less than 25% of their basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19), and order each parent to pay their share of the child/ren’s healthcare costs that are not covered by insurance.
  - Other (specify): _____

If the changes to the Child Support Order cause an overpayment or an underpayment of support or other expenses, I ask the court to order payment or give credit for those amounts.

Exception! No refund is allowed for a temporary reduction in support due to incarceration (abatement) before the Division of Child Support is notified of the incarceration.

WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS

Definitions

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, these definitions apply to the standards following this section. RCW 26.19.011.

Basic child support obligation: means the monthly child support obligation determined from the economic table based on the parties' combined monthly net income and the number of children for whom support is owed.

Child support schedule: means the standards, economic table, worksheets and instructions, as defined in chapter 26.19 RCW.

Court: means a superior court judge, court commissioner, and presiding and reviewing officers who administratively determine or enforce child support orders.

Deviation: means a child support amount that differs from the standard calculation.

Economic table: means the child support table for the basic support obligation provided in RCW 26.19.020.

Full-time: means the customary number of maximum, non-overtime hours worked in an individual's historical occupation, industry, and labor market. "Full-time" does not necessarily mean hours per week.

Instructions: means the instructions developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in completing the worksheets.

Standards: means the standards for determination of child support as provided in chapter 26.19 RCW.

Standard calculation: means the presumptive amount of child support owed as determined from the child support schedule before the court considers any reasons for deviation.

Support transfer payment: means the amount of money the court orders one parent to pay to another parent or custodian for child support after determination of the standard calculation and deviations. If certain expenses or credits are expected to fluctuate and the order states a formula or percentage to determine the additional amount or credit on an ongoing basis, the term "support transfer payment" does not mean the additional amount or credit.

Worksheets: means the forms developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in determining the amount of child support.

Application Standards

1. Application of the support schedule: The child support schedule shall be applied:
  - a. in each county of the state;
  - b. in judicial and administrative proceedings under titles 13, 26 and 74 RCW;
  - c. in all proceedings in which child support is determined or modified;
  - d. in setting temporary and permanent support;
  - e. in automatic modification provisions or decrees entered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100; and
  - f. in addition to proceedings in which child support is determined for minors, to adult children who are dependent on their parents and for whom support is ordered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100.

The provisions of RCW 26.19 for determining child support and reasons for deviation from the standard calculation shall be applied in the same manner by the court, presiding officers and reviewing officers. RCW 26.19.035(1).

2. Written findings of fact supported by the evidence: An order for child support shall be supported by written findings of fact upon which the support determination is based and shall include reasons for any deviation from the standard calculation and reasons for denial of a party's request for deviation from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.035(2).
3. Completion of worksheets: Worksheets in the form developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts shall be completed under penalty of perjury and filed in every proceeding in which child support is determined. The court shall not accept incomplete worksheets or worksheets that vary from the worksheets developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts. RCW 26.19.035(3).
4. Court review of the worksheets and order: The court shall review the worksheets and the order setting child support for the adequacy of the reasons set forth for any deviation or denial of any request for deviation and for the adequacy of the amount of support ordered. Each order shall state the amount of child support calculated using the standard calculation and the amount of child support actually ordered. Worksheets shall be attached to the decree or order or if filed separately, shall be initialed or signed by the judge and filed with the order. RCW 26.19.035(4).

Income Standards

1. Consideration of all income: All income and resources of each parent's household shall be disclosed and considered by the court when the court determines the child support obligation of each parent. Only the income of the parents of the children whose support is at issue shall be calculated for purposes of calculating the basic support obligation. Income and resources of any other person shall not be included in calculating the basic support obligation. RCW 26.19.071(1).
2. Verification of income: Tax returns for the preceding two years and current paystubs shall be provided to verify income and deductions. Other sufficient verification shall be required for income and deductions which do not appear on tax returns or paystubs. RCW 26.19.071(2).
3. Income sources included in gross monthly income: Monthly gross income shall include income from any source, including: salaries; wages; commissions; deferred compensation; overtime, except as excluded from income in RCW 26.19.071(4)(h); contract-related benefits; income from second jobs except as excluded from income in RCW 26.19.071(4)(h); dividends; interest; trust income; severance pay; annuities; capital gains; pension retirement benefits; workers' compensation; unemployment benefits; maintenance actually received; bonuses; social security benefits; disability insurance benefits; and income from self-employment, rent, royalties, contracts, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation. RCW 26.19.071(3).

Veterans' disability pensions: Veterans' disability pensions or regular compensation for disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the United States armed forces paid by the Veterans' Administration shall be disclosed to the court. The court may consider either type of compensation as disposable income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation. See RCW 26.19.045.

4. Income sources excluded from gross monthly income: The following income and resources shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income: income of a new spouse or domestic partner or income of other adults in the household; child support received from other relationships; gifts and prizes; temporary assistance for needy families (TANF); Supplemental Security Income; general assistance; food stamps; and overtime or income from second jobs beyond forty hours per week averaged over a twelve-month period worked to provide for a current family's needs, to retire past relationship debts, or to retire child support debt, when the court finds the income will cease when the party has paid off their debts. Receipt of income and resources from temporary assistance for needy families, Supplemental Security Income, general assistance and food stamps shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.071(4).

VA aid and attendant care: Aid and attendant care payments to prevent hospitalization paid by the Veterans Administration solely to provide physical home care for a disabled veteran, and special compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314(k) through (r) to provide either special care or special aids, or both to assist with routine daily functions shall be disclosed. The court may not include either aid or attendant care or special medical compensation payments in gross income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation or for purposes of deviating from the standard calculation. See RCW 26.19.045.

Other aid and attendant care: Payments from any source, other than veterans' aid and attendance allowance or special medical compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314(k) through (r) for services provided by an attendant in case of a disability when the disability necessitates the hiring of the services or an attendant shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income and shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.055.

5. Determination of net income: The following expenses shall be disclosed and deducted from gross monthly income to calculate net monthly income: federal and state income taxes (see the following paragraph); federal insurance contributions act deductions (FICA); mandatory pension plan payments; mandatory union or professional dues; state industrial insurance premiums; court-ordered maintenance to the extent actually paid; up to $5,000 per year in voluntary retirement contributions actually made if the contributions show a pattern of contributions during the one-year period preceding the action establishing the child support order unless there is a determination that the contributions were made for the purpose of reducing child support; and normal business expenses and self-employment taxes for self-employed persons. Justification shall be required for any business expense deduction about which there is a disagreement. Items deducted from gross income shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.071(5).

Allocation of tax exemptions: The parties may agree which parent is entitled to claim the child or children as dependents for federal income tax exemptions. The court may award the exemption or exemptions and order a party to sign the federal income tax dependency exemption waiver. The court may divide the exemptions between the parties, alternate the exemptions between the parties or both. RCW 26.19.100.

6. Imputation of income: The court shall impute income to a parent when the parent is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed. The court shall determine whether the parent is voluntarily underemployed or voluntarily unemployed based upon that parent's assets, residence, employment and earnings history, job skills, educational attainment, literacy, health and age, criminal record, dependency court obligations, and other employment barriers, record of seeking work, the local job market, the availability of employers willing to hire the parent, the prevailing earnings level in the local community, or any other relevant factors. A court shall not impute income to a parent who is gainfully employed on a full-time basis, unless the court finds that the parent is voluntarily underemployed and finds that the parent is purposely underemployed to reduce the parent's child support obligation. Income shall not be imputed for an unemployable parent. Income shall not be imputed to a parent to the extent the parent is unemployed or significantly underemployed due to the parent's efforts to comply with court-ordered reunification efforts under chapter 13.34 RCW or under a voluntary placement agreement with an agency supervising the child. Except as provided below regarding high school students, in the absence of records of a parent's actual earnings, the court shall impute a parent's income in the following order of priority:

- (a) Full-time earnings at the current rate of pay;
- (b) Full-time earnings at the historical rate of pay based on reliable information, such as employment security department data;
- (c) Full-time earnings at a past rate of pay where information is incomplete or sporadic;
- (d) Earnings of 32 hours per week at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where the parent resides if the parent is on temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) now or recently came off TANF or recently came off aged, blind, or disabled assistance benefits, pregnant women assistance benefits, essential needs and housing support, Supplemental Security Income, or disability, has recently been released from incarceration, or is a recent high school graduate. Imputation of earnings at 32 hours per week under this provision is a rebuttable presumption;
- (e) Full-time earnings at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where the parent resides if the parent has a recent history of minimum wage earnings, has never been employed and has no earnings history, or has no significant earnings history;
- (f) Median net monthly income of year-round full-time workers as derived from the United States Census Bureau, current population reports, or such replacement report as published by the Census Bureau. (See "Approximate Median Net Monthly Income" table on page 7.) RCW 26.19.071(6).

When a parent is currently enrolled in high school full-time, the court shall consider the totality of the circumstances of both parents when determining whether each parent is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed. If a parent who is currently enrolled in high school is determined to be voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed, the court shall impute income at earnings of 20 hours per week at minimum wage in the jurisdiction where that parent resides. Imputation of earnings at 20 hours per week under this provision is a rebuttable presumption.

Allocation Standards

1. Basic child support: The basic child support obligation derived from the economic table shall be allocated between the parents based on each parent's share of the combined monthly net income. RCW 26.19.080(1).

2. Healthcare expenses: Healthcare costs are not included in the economic table. Monthly healthcare costs shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic support obligation. Healthcare costs shall include, but not be limited to, medical, dental, orthodontia, vision, chiropractic, mental health treatment, prescription medications, and other similar costs for care and treatment. RCW 26.19.080(2).
3. Daycare and special child rearing expenses: Daycare and special child rearing expenses, such as tuition and long distance transportation costs to and from the parents for visitation purposes, are not included in the economic table. These expenses shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic child support obligation. RCW 26.19.080(3).
4. The court may exercise its discretion to determine the necessity for and the reasonableness of all amounts ordered in excess of the basic child support obligation. RCW 26.19.080(4).

Limitations Standards

1. Limit at 45% of a parent's net income: No parent's child support obligation owed for all of their biological or legal children may exceed 45% of net income except for good cause shown.
  - a. Each child is entitled to a pro rata share of the income available for support, but the court only applies the pro rata share to the children in the case before the court.
  - b. Before determining whether to apply the 45% limitation, the court must consider the best interests of the children and the circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the children, comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and any involuntary limits on any parent's earning capacity including incarceration, disabilities, or incapacity.
  - c. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, possession of substantial wealth, children with daycare expenses, special medical need, educational need, psychological need, and larger families. RCW 26.19.065(1).
2. Presumptive minimum support obligation: When a parent's monthly net income is below 125% of the federal poverty guideline for a one-person family, a support order of not less than $50 per child per month shall be entered unless the obligor parent establishes that it would be unjust to do so in that particular case. The decision whether there is a sufficient basis to go below the presumptive minimum payment must take into consideration the best interests of the children and circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances can include leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the children, comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and earning capacity. RCW 26.19.065(2)(a).
3. Self-support reserve: The basic support obligation of the parent making the transfer payment, excluding healthcare, daycare, and special child-rearing expenses, shall not reduce their net income below the self-support reserve of 125% of the federal poverty level for a one-person family, except for the presumptive minimum payment of $50 per child per month or when it would be unjust to apply the self-support reserve limitation after considering the best interests of the children and the circumstances of each parent. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, leaving insufficient funds in the custodial parent's household to meet the basic needs of the children, comparative hardship to the affected households, assets or liabilities, and earning capacity. This section shall not be construed to require monthly substantiation of income.

(See the Self-Support Reserve memorandum on the courts' website www.courts.wa.gov/forms and at www.WashingtonLawHelp.org.) RCW 26.19.065(2)(b).

4. Income above $12,000: The economic table is presumptive for combined monthly net incomes up to and including $12,000. When combined monthly net income exceeds $12,000; the court may exceed the maximum presumptive amount of support upon written findings of fact. RCW 26.19.065(3).

Deviation Standards

1. Reasons for deviation from the standard calculation include but are not limited to the following:
  - a. Sources of income and tax planning: The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following:
    - i. Income of a new spouse or new domestic partner if the parent who is married to the new spouse or the parent who is in a domestic partnership with the new domestic partner is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of a new spouse or domestic partner is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
    - ii. Income of other adults in the household if the parent who is living with the other adult is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of the other adults in the household is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;
    - iii. Child support actually received from other relationships;
    - iv. Gifts;
    - v. Prizes;
    - vi. Possession of wealth, including but not limited to savings, investments, real estate holdings and business interests, vehicles, boats, pensions, bank accounts, insurance plans or other assets;
    - vii. Extraordinary income of a child; or
    - viii. Tax planning considerations. A deviation for tax planning may be granted only if children would not receive a lesser economic benefit due to the tax planning;
    - ix. Income that has been excluded under RCW 26.19.071(4)(h) if the person earning that income asks for a deviation for any other reason. RCW 26.19.075(1)(a).
  - b. Nonrecurring income: The court may deviate from the standard calculation based on a finding that a particular source of income included in the calculation of the basic support obligation is not a recurring source of income. Depending on the circumstances, nonrecurring income may include overtime, contract-related benefits, bonuses or income from second jobs. Deviations for nonrecurring income shall be based on a review of the nonrecurring income received in the previous two calendar years. RCW 26.19.075(1)(b).
  - c. Debt and high expenses: The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following expenses:
    - i. Extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred;
    - ii. A significant disparity in the living costs of the parents due to conditions beyond their control;
    - iii. Special needs of disabled children; or
    - iv. Special medical, educational or psychological needs of the children.

- v. Costs anticipated to be incurred by the parents in compliance with court-ordered reunification efforts under chapter 13.34 RCW or under a voluntary placement agreement with an agency supervising the child. RCW 26.19.075(1)(c).
- d. Residential schedule: The court may deviate from the standard calculation if the children spend(s) a significant amount of time with a parent who is obligated to make a support transfer payment. The court may not deviate on that basis if the deviation will result in insufficient funds in the household receiving the support to meet the basic needs of the child or if the child is receiving temporary assistance for needy families (TANF). When determining the amount of the deviation, the court shall consider evidence concerning the increased expenses to a parent making support transfer payments resulting from the significant amount of time spent with that parent and shall consider the decreased expenses, if any, to the party receiving the support resulting from the significant amount of time the child spends with the parent making the support transfer payment. RCW 26.19.075(1)(d).
- e. Children from other relationships: The court may deviate from the standard calculation when any or all of the parents before the court have children from other relationships to whom the parent owes a duty of support.
  - i. The child support schedule shall be applied to the parents and children of the family before the court to determine the presumptive amount of support.
  - ii. Children from other relationships shall not be counted in the number of children for purposes of determining the basic support obligation and the standard calculation.
  - iii. When considering a deviation from the standard calculation for children from other relationships, the court may consider only other children to whom the parent owes a duty of support. The court may consider court-ordered payments of child support for children from other relationships only to the extent that the support is actually paid.
  - iv. When the court has determined that any or all parents have children from other relationships, deviations under this section shall be based on consideration of the total circumstances of both households. All child support obligations paid, received, and owed for all children shall be disclosed and considered. RCW 26.19.075(1)(e).
- 2. All income and resources of the parties before the court, new spouses or domestic partners, and other adults in the household shall be disclosed and considered as provided. The presumptive amount of support shall be determined according to the child support schedule. Unless specific reasons for deviation are set forth in the written findings of fact and are supported by the evidence, the court shall order each parent to pay the amount of support determined by using the standard calculation. RCW 26.19.075(2).
- 3. The court shall enter findings that specify reasons for any deviation or any denial of a party's request for any deviation from the standard calculation made by the court. The court shall not consider reasons for deviation until the court determines the standard calculation for each parent. RCW 26.19.075(3).
- 4. When reasons exist for deviation, the court shall exercise discretion in considering the extent to which the factors would affect the support obligation. RCW 26.19.075(4).
- 5. Agreement of the parties is not by itself adequate reason for any deviations from the standard calculations. RCW 26.19.075(5).

Benefits paid that apply toward a person's child support obligation

If an injured worker, person with disabilities, deceased person, retired person, or veteran who owes a child support obligation receives one of these benefits:

- Department of Labor and Industries payments
- Self-Insurer's payment
- Social Security Administration:
  - Social Security disability dependency benefits
  - Retirement benefits
  - Survivors insurance benefits
- Veteran's Administration benefits and shows that the child or the child's household receives a payment from those benefits, then, the amount of the payment made on behalf of the child or on account of the child applies toward the person's child support obligation for the same period covered by the benefit.

Post-Secondary Education Standards

1. The child support schedule shall be advisory and not mandatory for post-secondary educational support. RCW 26.19.090(1).
2. When considering whether to order support for post-secondary educational expenses, the court shall determine whether the child is in fact dependent and is relying upon the parents for the reasonable necessities of life. The court shall exercise its discretion when determining whether and for how long to award post-secondary educational support based upon consideration of factors that include but are not limited to the following: age of the child; the child's needs; the expectations of the parties for their children when the parents were together; the children's prospects, desires, aptitudes, abilities or disabilities; the nature of the post-secondary education sought and the parent's level of education, standard of living and current and future resources. Also to be considered are the amount and type of support that the child would have been afforded if the parents had stayed together. RCW 26.19.090(2).
3. The child must enroll in an accredited academic or vocational school, must be actively pursuing a course of study commensurate with the child's vocational goals and must be in good academic standing as defined by the institution. The court-ordered post-secondary educational support shall be automatically suspended during the period or periods the child fails to comply with these conditions. RCW 26.19.090(3).
4. The child shall also make available all academic records and grades to both parents as a condition of receiving post-secondary educational support. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the post-secondary education records as provided by statute (RCW 26.09.225). RCW 26.19.090(4).
5. The court shall not order the payment of post-secondary educational expenses beyond the child's 23rd birthday, except for exceptional circumstances, such as mental, physical, or emotional disabilities. RCW 26.19.090(5).
6. The court shall direct that any or all parents' payments for post-secondary educational expenses are made directly to the educational institution if feasible. If direct payments are not feasible, then the court in its discretion may order that any or all parents' payments are made directly to the child if the child does not reside with any parent. If the child resides with one of the parents, the court may direct that the parent making the support transfer payments make the payments to the child or to the parent who has been receiving the support transfer payments. RCW 26.19.090(6).

WASHINGTON STATE CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE INSTRUCTIONS FOR WORKSHEETS

Two parent families should use WSCSS – Worksheets 2. For families with three legal parents, use WSCSS – Worksheets 3. For families with more than three legal parents, you will need to create your own worksheets.

Worksheets:

Immediately below the form title, check the box showing if the worksheets are proposed or an order signed by the judge. If they are proposed, check the box showing who proposed them and put your name.

Fill in your county, the case number, and the names and ages of only those children whose support is at issue.

Write your name above Column 1 and write the other parent's name above Column 2 (and Column 3 if applicable). In the rest of the worksheet, list your information under Column 1 and list the other parent's information under Column 2 (and Column 3 if applicable).

Part I: Income

Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #1: Consideration of all income, "only the income of the parents of the children whose support is at issue shall be calculated for purposes of calculating the basic support obligation." (See page 1.)

Pursuant to INCOME STANDARD #2: Verification of income, "tax returns for the preceding two years and current paystubs are required for income verification purposes. Other sufficient verification shall be required for income and deductions which do not appear on tax returns or paystubs." (See page 1.)

Gross Monthly Income

Gross monthly income is defined under INCOME STANDARD #3: Income sources included in gross monthly income. (See page 1.)

Income exclusions are defined under INCOME STANDARD #4: Income sources excluded from gross monthly income. (See page 2.) Excluded income must be disclosed and listed in Part VIII of the worksheets.

Monthly Average of Income:

- If income varies during the year, divide the annual total of the income by 12.
- If paid weekly, multiply the weekly income by 52 and divide by 12.
- If paid every other week, multiply the two-week income by 26 and divide by 12.
- If paid twice a month (bi-monthly), multiply the bi-monthly income by 24 and divide by 12

LINE 1a, Wages and Salaries: Enter the average monthly total of all salaries, wages, contract-related benefits, bonuses, and income from overtime and second jobs that is not excluded from income by RCW 26.19.071(4)(i).

LINE 1b, Interest and Dividend Income: Enter the average monthly total of dividends and interest income.

LINE 1c, Business Income: Enter the average monthly income from self-employment, rent, royalties, contracts, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation.

LINE 1d, Maintenance Received: Enter the monthly amount of maintenance actually received.

LINE 1e, Other Income: Enter the average monthly total of other income. (Other income includes, but is not limited to: income tax refunds, trust income, severance pay, annuities, capital gains, pension retirement benefits, workers compensation, unemployment benefits, social security benefits and disability insurance benefits.)

LINE 1f, Imputed Income: Enter the imputed gross monthly income for a parent who is voluntarily unemployed, underemployed or if you do not have records of a parent's actual earnings. Refer to "INCOME STANDARD #6: Imputation of income." (See page 2.) Impute income using the first method possible based on the information you have in the following order:

Calculate full-time earnings using either:

1. Current rate of pay;
2. Historical rate of pay based on reliable information;
3. Past rate of pay, if current information is incomplete or sporadic;
4. Earnings of 32 hours per week at minimum wage where the parent lives if the parent is on TANF now or recently came off government assistance, is recently released from incarceration, or is a recent high school graduate (if currently enrolled in high school and voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, impute income at 20 hours per week at minimum wage where the parent lives); or
5. Minimum wage where the parent lives when the parent has a history of minimum wage, has never been employed, or has no significant earnings history.

Historical rate of pay information may be available from the Division of Child Support. Use form 18-701: "Request for Income Information for Purposes of Entering a Child Support Order", available online at: <http://www.dshs.wa.gov/dcs/Resources/Forms.asp> employed, or has no significant earnings history.

If you impute income using one of the five methods, above, enter the amount in line 1f. Also, in line 26 of the Worksheets, explain which method you used to impute income and how you calculated the amount of imputed income.

If you cannot use any of the above methods, impute the parent’s net monthly income using the table below, and enter the appropriate amount for the parent’s age and gender on line 1f and on line 3. The table, below, shows net income, after deductions. So if you impute using this table, you will not enter any deductions on the worksheet under line 2. Leave lines 2a through 2i blank. For this parent, go to line 4.

Also, in line 26 of the Worksheets, explain that net income was imputed using the Approximate Median Net Monthly Income Table.

Approximate Median Net Monthly Income

[Net income has been determined by subtracting FICA (7.65%) and the tax liability for a single person (one withholding allowance).]

LINE 1g, Total Gross Monthly Income: Add the monthly income amounts for each parent (lines 1a through 1f) and enter the totals on line 1g.

Monthly Deductions from Gross Income

Allowable monthly deductions from gross income are defined under INCOME STANDARD #5: Determination of net income. (See page 2.)

Monthly Average of Deductions: If a deduction is annual or varies during the year, divide the annual total of the deduction by 12 to determine a monthly amount.

LINE 2a, Income Taxes: Enter the net monthly amount actually owed for state and federal income taxes. (The amount of income tax withheld on a paycheck may not be the actual amount of income tax owed due to tax refunds, deductions, etc. It is appropriate to consider tax returns from prior years as indicating the actual amount of income tax owed if income has not changed.)

LINE 2b, FICA/Self Employment Taxes: Enter the total monthly amount of FICA, Social Security, Medicare and Self-employment taxes owed.

Economic Table Instructions

To use the Economic Table to determine an individual support amount for each child:

- Locate in the left-hand column the combined monthly net income amount closest to the amount entered on line 4 of Worksheet (round up when the combined monthly net income falls halfway between the two amounts in the left-hand column);

- Locate on the top row the family size for the number of children for whom child support is being determined (when determining family size for the required worksheets, do not include children from other relationships) and circle the number in the column below the family size that is across from the net income. The amount circled is the basic support amount for each child.

LINE 6, Proportional Share of Income: Divide the monthly net income for each parent (line 3) by the combined monthly net income (line 4) and enter these amounts on line 6. (The entries on line 6 when added together should equal 1.00.)

(The amounts entered on line 7 added together should equal the amount entered on line 5.)

LINE 8, Calculating low income limitations: Fill in only those that apply:

To calculate the low-income limitation standards in lines 8b and 8c, you will need to know the self-support reserve amount, which is 125% of the current federal poverty guideline for a one-person family. As of January 15, 2022, the self-support reserve is $1,416. The guideline and self-support reserve change roughly annually. To check the current self-support reserve amount go to the court’s web site at: www.courts.wa.gov, or go to www.WashingtonLawHelp.org. Enter the self-support reserve amount in the space provided in line 8. (For more information, see Limitation Standard #2 on page 3 of the Definitions and Standards.)

8a. Is combined net income less than $1,000? If combined net monthly income on line 4 is less than $1,000, enter each parent’s presumptive support obligation of $50 per child. Do not enter an amount on line 8a if combined income on line 4 is more than $1,000.

8b. Is monthly net income less than self-support reserve? For each parent whose monthly net income on line 3 is less than the self-support reserve, enter the parent’s presumptive support obligation of $50 per child. Do not use this box for a parent whose net income on line 3 is greater than the self-support reserve.

8c. Is monthly net income equal to or more than self-support reserve? Subtract the self-support reserve from line 3 and enter this amount or enter $50 per child whichever is greater. Do not use this box if the amount is greater than the amount in line 7.

LINE 9, Each parent’s basic child support obligation after calculating applicable limitations: For each parent, enter the lowest amount from line 7, 8a – 8c, but not less than the presumptive $50 per child.

Part III: Healthcare, Daycare, and Special Child Rearing Expenses

Pursuant to ALLOCATION STANDARD #4: “the court may exercise its discretion to determine the necessity for and the reasonableness of all amounts ordered in excess of the basic child support obligation.” (See page 2.)

Pursuant to ALLOCATION STANDARD #2: Healthcare expenses and #3: Daycare and special child rearing expenses, healthcare, daycare, and special child rearing expenses shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic support obligation. (See page 2.) NOTE: The court order should reflect that healthcare, daycare and special child rearing expenses not listed should be apportioned by the same percentage as the basic child support obligation.

Monthly Average of Expenses: If a healthcare, daycare, or special child rearing expense is annual or varies during the year, divide the annual total of the expense by 12 to determine a monthly amount.

Healthcare Expenses

6. Imputed Income

To calculate child support, the court may impute income to a parent:

- whose income is unknown, or
- who the court finds is unemployed or under-employed by choice.

7. Limits affecting the monthly child support amount

Does not apply. The monthly amount was not affected by the upper or lower limits in RCW 26.19.065.

The monthly amount has been affected by (check all that apply):

Low-income limits. The self-support reserve and presumptive minimum payment have been calculated in the Worksheets, lines 8.a. - c.

The 45% net income limit. The court finds that the paying parent’s child support obligations for their biological and legal children are more than 45% of their net income (Worksheets line 18). Based on the children’s best interests and the parents’ circumstances, it is (check one):  fair.  not fair to apply the 45% limit. (Describe both parents’ situations):

_____

_____

Combined Monthly Net Income over $12,000. Together, the parents earn more than $12,000 per month (Worksheets line 4). The child support amount (check one):

is the presumptive amount from the economic table.

is more than the presumptive amount from the economic table because (specify):

9. Deviation from standard calculation

Should the monthly child support amount be different from the standard calculation?

No – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is the same as the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check one):

No one asked for a deviation from the standard calculation. (Skip to 10.)

There is not a good reason to approve the deviation requested by (name/s): _____
_____. The facts supporting this decision are (check all that apply):

detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.

the parent asking for a deviation:

has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $_____.

lives in a household where other adults have income of $_____.

has income from overtime or a second job that was excluded in section 5 above.

other (specify): _____.

Yes – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is different from the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check all that apply):

- A parent or parents in this case has:
  - children from other relationships.
  - paid or received child support for children from other relationships.
  - gifts, prizes, or other assets.
  - income that is not regular (non-recurring income) such as bonuses, overtime, etc.
  - unusual unplanned debt (extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred).
  - tax planning considerations that will not reduce the economic benefit to the children.
  - very different living costs, which are beyond their control.
- The children in this case:
  - spend significant time with the parent who owes support. The non-standard amount still gives the other parent's household enough money for the children's basic needs. The children do not get public assistance (TANF).
  - have extraordinary income.
  - have special needs because of a disability.
  - have special medical, educational, or psychological needs.
- There are (or will be) costs for court-ordered reunification or a voluntary placement agreement.
- The parent who owes support has shown it is not fair to have to pay the $50 per child presumptive minimum payment.
- The parent who is owed support has shown it is not fair to apply the self-support reserve (calculated on lines 8.a. – c. of the Worksheets).
- Other reasons: _____
_____

The facts that support the reasons checked above are (check all that apply):

- detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.
- the parent asking for a deviation:
  - has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $_____.
  - lives in a household where other adults have income of $_____.
  - has income from overtime or a second job that was excluded in section 5 above.
- as follows: _____

10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment)

After considering the standard calculation in section 8, and whether or not to apply a deviation in section 9, the court orders the following monthly child support amount (transfer payment).

(Name): _____ must pay child support to (name): _____ each month as follows for the children listed below (add lines for additional children if needed):

	Child's Name	Age	Amount
1.			$
2.			$
3.			$
4.			$
5.			$
Total monthly child support amount:			$

Residential Split – Each parent has at least one of the children from this relationship living with them most of the time. (Name): _____ must pay child support to (name): _____ each month as follows:

Total monthly child support amount: $

11. Starting date and payment schedule

The monthly child support amount must be paid starting (month, year): _____ on the following payment schedule:

- in one payment each month by the ___ day of the month.
- in two payments each month: ½ by the _____ and ½ by the _____ day of the month.
- other (specify): _____

12. Step increase or decrease (for modifications or adjustments only)

- Does not apply.
- Approved – The court is changing a final child support order. The monthly child support amount is increasing or decreasing by more than 30 percent from the last final child support order. This causes significant financial hardship to the parent who owes or receives support, so the increase will be applied in two equal steps:
  - On (date): _____, six months after the Starting Date in section 11, the monthly child support amount will be the full amount listed in section 10.
  - For 6 months from the Starting Date in section 11 above, the monthly child support amount will be an amount exactly half way between the old monthly amount and the new monthly amount for a total of $_____ each month.
- Denied – The court is changing a final child support order (check one):
  - but the monthly payment increased or decreased by less than 30%.
  - and the monthly payment increased by more than 30%, but this does not cause a significant hardship to the parent who owes support.

and the monthly payment decreased by more than 30%, but this does not cause a significant hardship to the parent who receives support.

13. Periodic Adjustment

Child support may be changed according to state law. The court is not ordering a specific periodic adjustment schedule below.

Any party may ask the court to adjust child support periodically on the following schedule without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

The Motion to Adjust Child Support Order may be filed:

every ____ months.

on (date/s): _____

other (describe condition or event): _____

Important! A party must file a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521), and the court must approve a new Child Support Order for any adjustment to take effect.

Deadlines, if any (for example, deadline to exchange financial information, deadline to file the motion): _____

14. Payment Method (check either Registry or Direct Pay)

Registry – Send payment to the Washington State Support Registry. The Division of Child Support (DCS) will forward payments to the person owed support and keep records of all payments.

Address for payment: Washington State Support Registry
PO Box 45868, Olympia, WA 98504

Phone number/s: 1 (800) 922-4306 or 1 (800) 442-5437

Important! If you are ordered to send your support payments to the Washington State Support Registry, and you pay some other person or organization, you will not get credit for your payment.

DCS Enforcement (if Registry is checked above):

DCS will enforce this order because (check all that apply):

this is a public assistance case.

one of the parties has already asked DCS for services.

one of the parties has asked for DCS services by signing the application statement at the end of this order (above the Warnings).

DCS will not enforce this order unless one of the parties applies for DCS services or the children go on public assistance.

Direct Pay – Send payment to the other parent or non-parent custodian by:

mail to: _____ Street Address or PO Box City State Zip

or any new address the person owed support provides to the parent who owes support. (This does not have to be a home address.)

15. Enforcement through income withholding (garnishment)

DCS or the person owed support can collect the support owed from the income, earnings, assets, or benefits of the parent who owes support, and can enforce liens against real or personal property as allowed by any state's child support laws without notice to the parent who owes the support.

If this order is not being enforced by DCS and the person owed support wants to have support paid directly from the employer, the person owed support must ask the court to sign a separate income withholding order requiring the employer to withhold income and make payments. (Chapter 26.18 RCW.)

Income withholding may be delayed until a payment becomes past due if the court finds good reason to delay.

Does not apply. There is no good reason to delay income withholding.

Income withholding will be delayed until a payment becomes past due because (check one):

the child support payments are enforced by DCS, and there are good reasons in the children's best interest not to withhold income at this time. If this is a case about changing child support, previously ordered child support has been paid on time.

List the good reasons here: _____

16. Temporary reduction if incarcerated (abatement)

Important! Read Support Abatement Warnings at the end of this order.

If the person who owes support is incarcerated:

- The total monthly child support amount may be temporarily reduced to $10 while the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months (or serving a sentence of more than six months), and has no income or assets available to pay the support.
- If reduced, the support amount will be $10 a month.
- Beginning the fourth month after the person who owes support is released, support will be 50% of the original amount, or $50 per child, whichever is more.

- One year after release, support will return to the original amount in section 10.
- Reinstatement of the support amount at 50% does not automatically apply, if a Petition to Modify Child Support Order is filed during the period of abatement.

The person who owes support qualifies for abatement. Monthly child support is temporarily reduced (abated) to $10 and will be reinstated as described above.

17. End date for support

Support must be paid for each child until the court signs a different order or (check one):

the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last, unless the court makes a different order in section 18.

the child turns 18 or is emancipated, unless the court makes a different order in section 18.

after (child's name): _____ turns 18. Based on information available to the court, it is expected that this child will be unable to support them self and will remain dependent past the age of 18. Support must be paid until (check one):

18. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school)

Reserved – A parent or non-parent custodian may ask the court for post-secondary educational support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501). The Petition must be filed before child support ends as listed in section 17.

Granted – The parents must pay for the children’s post-secondary educational support. Post-secondary educational support may include support for the period after high school and before college or vocational school begins. The amount or percentage each person must pay (check one):

will be decided later. The parties may make a written agreement or ask the court to set the amount or percentage by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501).

19. Tax Issues

Important! Although personal tax exemptions are currently suspended under federal law through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

- The parties will follow the law and IRS rules about claiming children on tax forms.
- The parties have the right to claim the children as their dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on their tax forms as follows (check one):
- Every year – (name): _____

- Other (specify): _____

For tax years when a non-custodial parent has the right to claim the children, the parents must cooperate to fill out and submit IRS Form 8332 in a timely manner.

20. Medical Support

Important! Read the Medical Support Warnings at the end of this order. Medical Support includes health insurance (both public and private) and cash payments towards premiums and uninsured medical expenses.

- The court is not ordering how healthcare coverage must be provided for the children because the court does not have enough information to determine the availability of accessible healthcare coverage for the children (coverage that could be used for the children's primary care). The law requires every parent to provide or pay for medical support. DCS or any parent can enforce this requirement. (Skip to 21.)
- Private health insurance ordered. (Name): _____ must pay the premium to provide health insurance coverage for the children. The court has considered the needs of the children, the cost and extent of coverage, and the accessibility of coverage.
- The other parent must pay their proportional share* of the premium paid. Health insurance premiums (check one):
- are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
- are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.

* Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.

- The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's insurance because (explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public healthcare coverage.

- A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of their basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____

A parent cannot be ordered to pay an amount towards healthcare coverage premiums that is more than 25% of their basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the children.

- Public healthcare coverage. (Name): _____ has enrolled the child in public healthcare coverage and does not have available at no cost, accessible health insurance coverage through an employer or union.

- The other parent must enroll the child in accessible health insurance coverage through their employer or union up to 25% of their basic support obligation.

- The other parent must pay their proportional share* of the premium for public healthcare coverage for the child. Public healthcare premiums (check one):

are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.

are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.

21. Healthcare coverage if circumstances change or court has not ordered

If the parties' circumstances change, or if the court is not ordering how healthcare coverage must be provided for the children in section 20:

- A parent, non-parent custodian, or DCS can enforce the medical support requirement.

- If a parent does not provide proof of accessible healthcare coverage (coverage that can be used for the children’s primary care), that parent must:
  - Get (or keep) insurance through their work or union, unless the insurance costs more than 25% of their basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets),
  - Pay their share of the other parent’s monthly premium up to 25% of their basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets), or
  - Pay their share of the monthly cost of any public healthcare coverage, such as Apple Health or Medicaid, which is assigned to the state.

22. Children’s expenses not included in the monthly child support amount

Uninsured medical expenses – Each parent is responsible for a share of uninsured medical expenses as ordered below. Uninsured medical expenses include premiums, co-pays, deductibles, and other healthcare costs not paid by healthcare coverage.

- DOL or other licensing agencies may deny, suspend, or refuse to renew your licenses, including your driver's license and business or professional licenses, and
- Dept. of Fish and Wildlife may suspend or refuse to issue your fishing and hunting licenses and you may not be able to get permits. (RCW 74.20A.320)

Support Abatement Warnings!

The Division of Child Support (DCS), the person required to pay support, the payee under this order, or the person entitled to receive support may ask the court or DCS to temporarily reduce child support to $10 per month when the person required to pay support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least six months, or serving a sentence of more than six months.

There is a rebuttable presumption that an incarcerated person cannot pay child support. DCS, the payee under this order, or the person receiving the support may overcome the presumption by showing that the person required to pay support has income or other assets available to pay support.

When a request for abatement is made, DCS will review its records and other available information, and decide if abatement is appropriate. DCS will send notice of the decision to the person required to pay support, and to the payee under this order or the person entitled to receive support. Any of those persons may object to DCS's decision.

If at any point during the period of incarceration, a person or DCS later learns of income or other assets available to pay support, a request to terminate or reverse the abatement may be made through DCS or the Office of Administrative Hearings.

Medical Support Warnings!

The parents must keep the Support Registry informed about whether they have access to healthcare coverage for the children at a reasonable cost and to provide the policy information for any such coverage.

If you are ordered to provide children's healthcare coverage...

You have 20 days from the date of this order to send:

- proof that the children are covered , or
- proof that healthcare coverage is not available as ordered.

Send your proof to the other parent or to the Support Registry (if your payments go there).

If you do not provide proof of healthcare coverage:

- The other parent or the support agency may contact your employer or union, without notifying you, to ask for direct enforcement of this order (RCW 26.18.170), and
- The other parent may:
  - Ask the DCS for help,
  - Ask the court for a contempt order, or
  - File a Petition in court.

Don't cancel your employer or union health insurance for your children unless the court approves or your job ends, and you no longer qualify for insurance as ordered in section 20.

If an insurer sends you payment for a medical provider's service:

- you must send it to the medical provider if the provider has not been paid; or
- you must send the payment to whoever paid the provider if someone else paid the provider; or
- you may keep the payment if you paid the provider.

If the children have public healthcare coverage, the state can make you pay for the cost of the monthly premium.

Always inform the Support Registry and any parent if your access to healthcare coverage changes or ends.

    - No one left in issuing state.
      - None of the children or parties to the current order (other than a State party) live in the state or jurisdiction where the order was issued;
      - The person asking to modify the order (Petitioner) lives outside of Washington; and
      - Washington has personal jurisdiction over the Respondent because they (check all that apply):
        - live in this state now.

  - Each party to the current order (other than a State party) has filed a consent with the court that issued the current order agreeing that a Washington court may modify the order and take continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

4. Should the court modify the monthly child support amount?

- No. The monthly child support amount should not be changed because there are no valid reasons to change it. (Explain why the reasons in the Petition are not valid):
- _____
- _____

- Yes. The monthly child support amount should be changed as written in the new Child Support Order because (check all that apply):

- One year or more has passed – The current order was signed at least 1 year ago and (check all that apply):
- the current order causes severe financial hardship for the requesting party or the children.
  - the court should add a Periodic Adjustment provision according to RCW 26.09.100. Support may be adjusted periodically as described in the new Child Support Order.
  - a child is still in high school and there is a need to extend support beyond their 18th birthday to complete high school.

5. Should the court modify the order to add language allowing for a temporary reduction due to incarceration? (Abatement)

- Does not apply. No change was requested.

- No. The person who owes support is not currently incarcerated.
- Yes. The current order does not provide for a temporary reduction (abatement) based on incarceration, and the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least 6 months (or serving a sentence of more than 6 months). Abatement language should be included in the new Child Support Order.

6. Should the court order a temporary reduction due to incarceration? (Abatement)

- Does not apply. No change was requested.
- No. The presumption in favor of abatement has been rebutted because it has been shown that the person who owes support has, or has access to, income or assets to provide support while incarcerated.
- No. DCS can administer the abatement.
- Yes. It has not been shown that the person who owes support has, or has access to, income or assets to provide support while incarcerated. The court should temporarily reduce the total monthly child support amount to $10 while the person who owes support is in jail, prison, or a correctional facility for at least 6 months (or serving a sentence of more than 6 months).

The support will remain $10 a month through the third month after the person who owes support is released. After the third month, the support will be 50% of the original amount stated in the current order or $50 per child, whichever is more, unless a petition for modification has been filed. One year after release, the support will return to the original amount stated in the current order. This temporary abatement of the child support obligation does not constitute modification or adjustment of the order.

7. Should the court change the temporary reduction (abatement) already in effect?

- Does not apply. No change was requested.
- No. The current temporary reduction (abatement) should remain as previously ordered by the court or as administered by DCS.
- Yes. The temporary reduction (abatement) previously ordered by the court or as administered by DCS should be changed because:

---

---

The monthly child support amount should be as written in the new Child Support Order.

8. Should the court modify the end date for child support?

- Does not apply. No change was requested.
- No. The end date for child support should not be changed because there are no valid reasons to change it. (Explain why the reasons in the Petition are not valid):

---

---

- Yes. The end date should be changed as written in the new Child Support Order because (check all that apply):
  - Agreement – The parties agree to the changes.
  - Finish High School – The current order was signed at least 1 year ago. (Child's name): _____ will still be in high school when they turn 18 and will need support until they finish high school.
  - Dependent Adult Child – The current order says support must be paid for each child until each child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last. 9. Should the court modify post-secondary educational support?

- No. The court should not change or order post-secondary support because there are no valid reasons. (Explain why the reasons in the Petition are not valid): _____
- Yes. Issue was reserved – The current order allows a parent/custodian to ask the court for post-secondary support at a later date. The children depend on the parents for the reasonable necessities of life. The court has considered the factors in RCW 26.19.090(2) and decided that post-secondary support should be ordered as written in the new Child Support Order.
- Yes. Support was granted, need to set an amount – The current order says the parents must pay for the children's post-secondary support, but did not set a payment amount or percentage. The court has considered the financial resources of the parents and the child, the expenses for post-secondary education, and other relevant information. The court approves the post-secondary support amount or percentage of expenses written on the new Child Support Order.
- Yes. Modify – The court should change post-secondary support as follows (check all that apply):
  - Require – The current order says post-secondary support is not required. The court should modify the order so that post-secondary support is required for (Children's names): _____.
