In most cases, the deadline to file the Petition to Decide Parentage is before the child turns 4. (See RCW 26.26A.115, 26.26A.435.)*

16. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

Does not apply. My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.

The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children my spouse and I have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children’s names): _____

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):

 lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed or, if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children’s names): _____
 do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children’s home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children’s names): _____
 do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____

or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): _____ because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent, brother, or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):

A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).

There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date) _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.

Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

17. Parenting Plan

My spouse and I have no children together who are under 18 years old.

I ask the court to order a Parenting Plan for the children my spouse and I have together. I will file and serve my proposed Parenting Plan (form FL All Family 140) (check one):

at the same time as this Petition.

before this case is finished.

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

18. Child Support

Note: The law requires that child support be addressed if there are dependent children of the marriage. RCW 26.09.100(1)).

My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.

Court Order – I ask the court to order child support (including medical support) according to state law for the children my spouse and I have together. (You may ask for a court order of child support even if there is already an administrative order. The court order will replace the administrative order to the extent the court order is different.)

I ask the court to order my spouse to pay their proportionate share of (check all that apply):

daycare expenses

long-distance transportation expenses

education expenses

post-secondary (college or vocational school) support other child-related expenses (specify): _____

I ask the court to order that we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe): _____

Important! Although the personal tax exemptions are currently suspended through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

Administrative Order – There is no need for the court to make a child support order. The DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) has already established an administrative child support order for the children my spouse and I have together in DCS case number/s: _____. I am not asking the court to make a different child support order.

DCS child support orders do not cover tax issues or post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. Because these issues are not in the administrative order, I ask the court to order (check all that apply):

we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe):

my spouse to pay their proportionate share of post-secondary (college or vocational school) support.

19. Children from other relationships

Neither spouse has children from other relationships who are still dependent.

I have the following dependent children who are not from this relationship (list name/s and age/s): _____.
